

Fatih Yildiz

Q2.1) Unlike in binary, in balanced ternary, we can represent negative numbers without the need for an extra sign bit. Thus, we do not need to reserve a trit for the sign of the mantissa. Similarly we do not need a bias to represent negative exponents.